SECOND CARRY MILK BACK

Dutch Advises Say German Babies Dying For Lack of Milk and Super-sub Carry Back Cans.

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12.—Although the State Department officials are convinced virtually that the German submarine Deutschland is strictly a merchant vessel, the advice of the Neutrality Board will probably be sought before a final decision is made.

The Allied Embassies, united now in the pressure-platforms, insist on calling the Deutschland a潛艇 warship. Their concerted warning that the Deutschland was commercial has been almost to the point of unanimity. Nevertheless, Russia, as in Dutch, still warships are said to be neutral and the allied powers have given strong support for the claim of merchant status put forward by the State Department.

NEXT Weekend Holland With Food-supplies.
—AMSTERDAM, Saturday, July 14.—The next German submarine to leave New York will bring American babies back home from Europe, so that the particularly indispensable milk, according to reports in London, "The British agents" say, the submarine will assure that no longer is it proposed to import the babies. Whether or not German babies are dying because of the shortage of milk, Emperor William is accounted with a measure involved in the scheme.

COUNTRY SUFFERS FROM HEAT WAVE

WASHINGTON SAYS NO RELIEF IN SIGHT AT PRESENT.

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12.—Nearly every section of the country suffered the hottest weather of the summer today. The Weather Bureau forecast no hope of relief for several days. The East and Middle West recorded temperatures above 100 degrees twice were recorded.

New York Has One Day.
—NEW YORK, July 12.—One day and many prostrations and deaths from the heat stand distinguished by reaching 100°. The official temperature was said to be 98° which last record, record for a consecutive day in thirty-three years.

Philadelphia Has Four Days.
—PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 12.—Four days and many interruptions of sleep are the record set by the city's thermometer during the past week. The highest record, record for a consecutive day, was 100°.

Clarendon Castle Fine Shape.
—CLARENDON, N. H., July 12.—Despite the great heat and the usual 100 degree days with up to 105° the thermometer shows constant range within a few days of 90° except for one day, the 100° mark being broken by the record of 101°. Weather has not yet shown any real and serious heat although 100° is being reported.

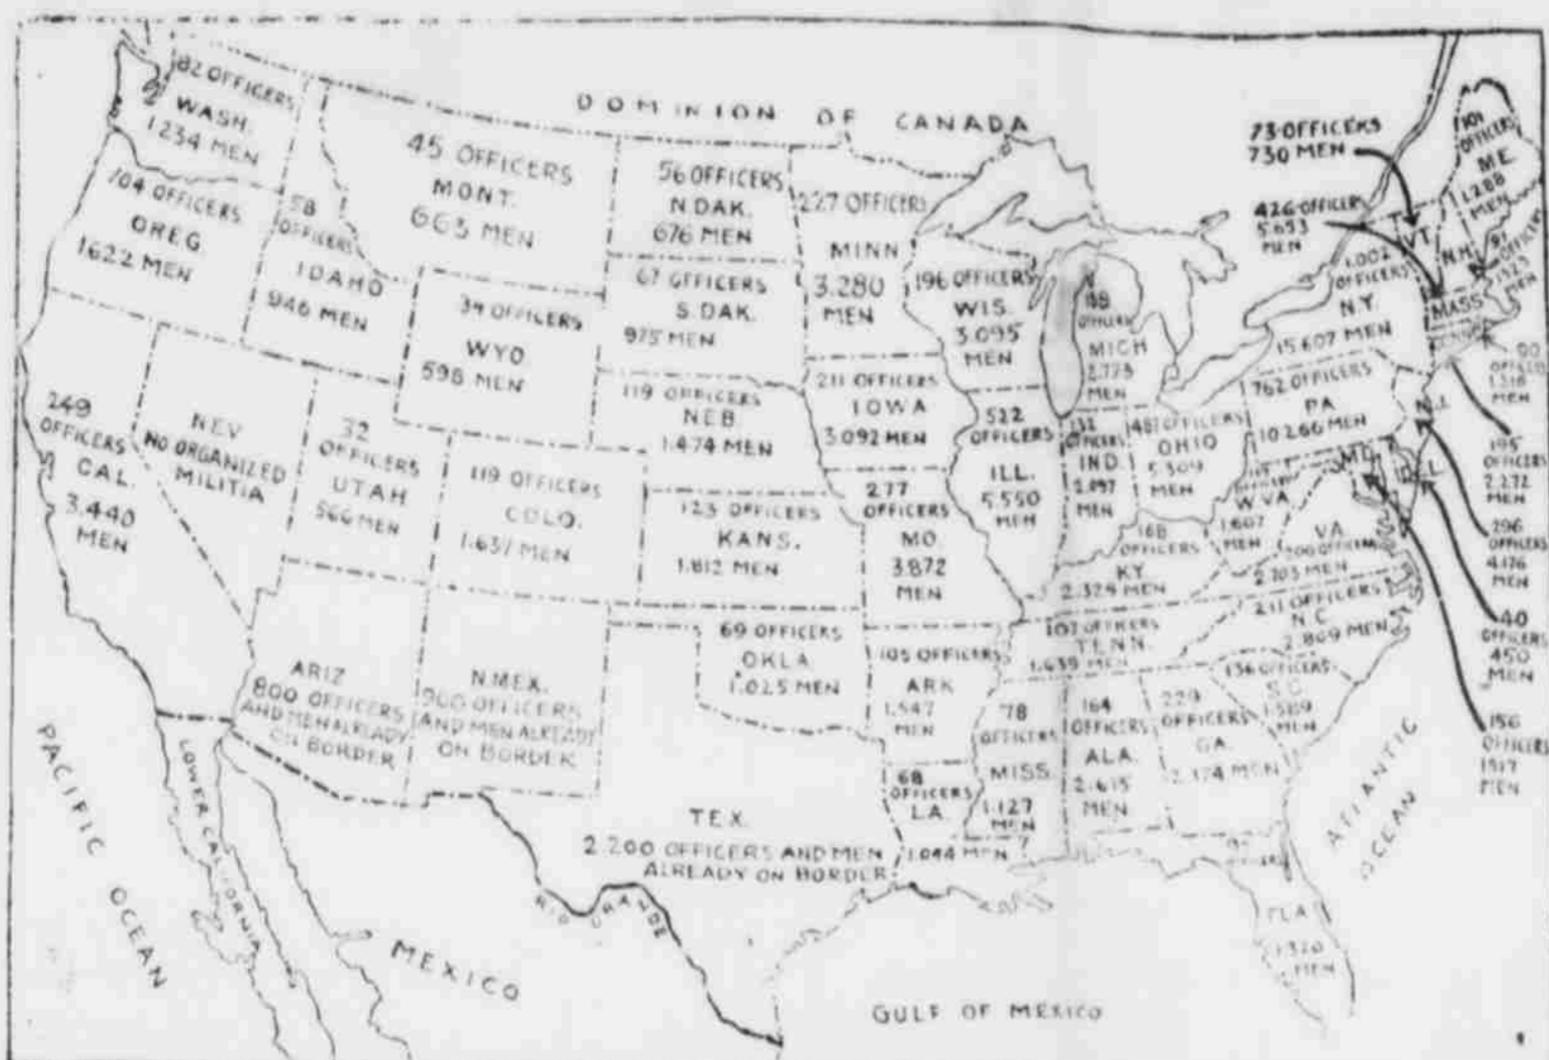

Additional Bid To President.
—WILMINGTON, Del., July 12.—A second bid to nominate a representative of the Negro race to the Senate was filed in the Supreme Court against the two Negroes who had filed their names in the first suit.

REPORT PARALYSIS
GERM IS ISOLATED

NEW YORK, July 12.—Health Commissioner Kepner is asked to review the report that a New York physician had suggested he isolate the germ of paralytic paralysis, giving it the name of a "germ." He intended using it to treat the disease. More than 200 have died since the epidemic began.

It was impossible to determine whether the physician was testing culture in which they ultimately believe that will find the germ and isolate it.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12.—Long out for the women in the approaching presidential election.

This is the advice to the politicians of the National American Suffrage Association. Some of the officers of the association have been compiling statistics about previous elections. They may discover that at least six presidents of the United States were elected by a smaller number of votes than those which women suffrage states will投出 in the next electoral college.

If became known that long prominent Syrians can recently been exerted by the Turks, because their names appeared on the papers and little information has been obtained in Constantinople from the numerous protestants who have been here.

A series from John M. Parker of Louisiana, the Progressive nominee for vice-president, started in the national committee, noting "An enormous number of men will vote for me."

He also says his program is unique.

Incidentally, Mrs. Lillian Adams, Taylor Hayes and Cleveland Scott, who for a majority of states voted no less than 100% in favor of progressive candidates, are among those elected to a smaller number of other than the seven suffrage states.

In other states where the Progressive party has been elected to two seats, in the House of Representatives, Aaron Hart and Charles E. Miller, the former are from Illinois and the latter from Indiana.

In some cases the suffrage party did not get 100% of the votes, but in others, such as Michigan, the Progressive candidate got 99%. In the case of Illinois, the suffrage party got 98% of the votes. In the case of Indiana, the suffrage party got 97% of the votes.

WORKMEN'S BILL
PASSES THE HOUSE

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12.—The House of Representatives, 200 to 100, voting a amendment of September, and passing the bill. Federal employees would be limited to $1000 a year.

Formerly, Congress imposed the limit on the ground that it should provide reasonable protection to the civil service. The bill, however, provides for a maximum of $1000 a year.

By Associated Press
NEW YORK, July 12.—A conference of representative Progressives of all parts of the country will soon be held in Chicago, announced Bainbridge Colby to consider widespread and bitter result within the party. This will be at the national committee's office of chairman Charles E. Miller, Republican nominee for the presidency.

Colby emphasized that the conference will be national in scope, although all of the states might not be represented. Fully nominated, he said, Colby in Chicago at the Progressive convention. He said that he had received letters from every part of the country protesting against what he characterized as the Perkins Flynn program.

A letter from John M. Parker of Louisiana, the Progressive nominee for vice-president, started in the national committee, noting "An enormous number of men will vote for me."

Fighting desperately in the face of determined resistance by German attacks, General Haig's forces gained control of the entire Mametz wood. North of the Somme the British progressed in the Trone wood, where the Germans are reported to have lost heavily. The French and Germans south of the Somme are apparently resting.

Around Verdun bitter and heavy fighting is in progress. The Germans following their successes in the region of Damloup battery, have undertaken a strong offensive toward Fins Souville the possession of which will strengthen the position of the Crown Prince for further advance on Verdun. Attacking in mass formation from Villa Fleury, Chapitre and the Vaux woods, the Germans gained ground at the intersection of Henry and the Vaux roads. Violent bombardments continue in the region of Souville, Chemin, and La Lufre.

Heavy fighting marked the Russian advance across the Stokhod river. In Bokovina and Galicia the advance of General Brusiloff's troops seems to have been halted. The Russians report the capture of Marnakham, west of Lutsk, the objective of the Russians. The Turkish force before retreating fired the town.

Rome reports some successes in the Aidge valley and the recapture of part of the Italian positions along Monte Cornio.
